– Aristóteles

Experts on Emerging Markets Projects

SUN EVO works extensively on projects where deep cultural awareness is demanded. This is crucial to our business philosophy.

We are agile & easy to work with because we fully understand our clients' needs and demanding customs challenges of each market. This helps us to optimize and customize our unique offers.

By distributing A-Brand Network Equipment and collaborating with the most sophisticated Strategic Partners in Europe, the Middle East and Africa (EMEA), we serve the most important segments with tailor-made IT solutions to each client.

“Coming together is a beginning, staying together is progress, and working together is success.”

– Henry Ford

> Knowledge is of two kinds. We know a subject ourselves, or we know where we can find information upon it"
> – Samuel Johnson

Areas of Expertise

With advanced logistics in The Netherlands and all over the EMEA, SUN EVO is a global, independent IT distributor of state-of-the-art Hardware, Software, AI and IoT technology with an expertise in Emerging Markets.

Our commitment is to maximize your resources by quickly responding to your team and overcome timelines with a competitive offer on A-Brand Manufacturer products, services and solutions.

Sun Evo's intention is to bring most added value to all your IT projects by offering solid infrastructure and outcome customs challenges with the fastest shipping methods worldwide despite project scope or deadlines.
